

LABOR DAY IS THE LAST CHANCE TO ENJOY PALM BEACH AND SUMMER HOTEL DEALS

08/13/2021

Galveston, Texas (August 13, 2021) — Moody Gardens is wrapping up a summer of fun with the last day to enjoy Palm beach being Monday, September 6th or Labor Day. Until then, guests can still enjoy Galveston's only white sand beach on weekends from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.. Hotel guests and Moody Gardens members receive discounted tickets to Palm Beach. Guests at Palm Beach can bask in the sun poolside, relax in a Texas-sized spa, watch the littles ones splash around at the splashpad or Aquarium Adventure play area, plummet down the tower slides or float along the interactive river.

Visitors staying at the Moody Gardens Hotel can take advantage of summer hotel deals while they last. Guests can save 30% off their entire stay when they stay three consecutive nights. Hotel guests receive access to an amazing spa, heated indoor lap pool and outdoor pool, fine dining, casual dining and so much more. Additionally, hotel visitors receive discounted rates on tickets to all of the attractions. Moody Gardens is the perfect place for one last summer getaway.

Individuals have two weekends remaining to take advantage of Palm Beach and summer hotel deals before September 6th. After Palm Beach's closure, individuals still have the option to explore the several other indoor and outdoor attractions Moody Gardens has to offer. Discover the Rainforests of Asia, Africa and the Americas inside the Rainforest Pyramid, or visit the Aquarium Pyramid, where guests travel from the Caribbean to the South and North Pacific, featuring seals, penguins and thousands of fish from the oceans of the world and so much more. Visitors can also enjoy a 3D or 4D film or venture to new depths inside 20,000 Leagues Under the Sea Interactive Adventure, sail around Offats Bayou aboard the Colonel Paddlewheel Boat, or learn about the science behind music inside of the Discovery Museum.

Moody Gardens has had a busy, fun-filled summer season, and staff anticipate that same momentum flowing into the fall and winter seasons. As the summer comes to an end, Moody Gardens is busy preparing for the most spectacular Holiday in the Gardens yet, full of family tradition and celebration. Get ready to make lasting memories this holiday season with even more lights, dancing animated displays, holiday music, pictures with Santa, hot cocoa with s'mores and much more!

For more information call 409-744-4673 or visit www.moodygardens.org.

Moody Gardens® is a public, non-profit, educational destination utilizing nature in the advancement of rehabilitation, conservation, recreation, and research.

###

Contacts

Jerri Hamachek
Marketing Director
jhamachek@moodygardens.org
Phone: 409-683-4249