

Moody Gardens® Scavenger Hunt ~Aquarium Pyramid~

The Aquarium Pyramid® contains about _____ gallons of water.

How many different types, or species, of penguins live in the Aquarium Pyramid®?

Coral is a(n): plant animal cephalopod fungus

T/F Divers cannot get into the water in some of the exhibits because of the sharks.

What color is the skin of the green moray eel? Green Blue Yellow

T/F All penguin species live in the southern hemisphere.

The _____ shark is the largest species of shark on exhibit in the Aquarium Pyramid®.

This is the number of feet kelp can grow in a single day?

Eels are a type of: reptile fish amphibian

The _____ is the largest seal species in the North Pacific exhibit in the Aquarium Pyramid®.

T/F Some seahorse species are found in the Gulf of Mexico.