

LEARN WILD HOME SCHOOL 2022-2023

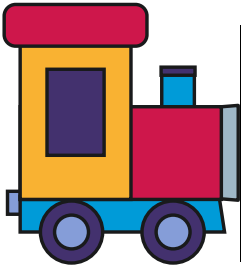

Come to Moody Gardens for exciting mornings of various theme-related educational activities with a corresponding attraction!

October 4
Hanging Out: Bats of the Rainforest

November 1
Gelatinous Guides: Jazzing with Jellies

December 6
Miraculous Movement: Jamming with Trains

January 3
Creepy Crawly: Interesting Insects

February 7
Feather Friends: Penguin Pals

March 7
Otter-ly Fantastic: Roaming with River Otters

April 4
Ocean Adventures: Swimming with Sharks

May 9
Day of the Dinos: Blast to the Past

October 4, 2022: Hanging Out: Bats of the Rainforest

Join us on October 4th for a focus topic of nocturnal animals. Featuring an ambassador animal presentation, What's My Design adaption presentation, and exploring the Rainforest Pyramid with interactive hands-on education stations.

November 1, 2022: Gelatinous Guides: Jazzing with Jellies

Join us on November 1st for a focus topic of subtle and quiet sea creatures. Featuring a 10:00am 3D Theater showing of the film Secrets of the Sea, an ambassador animal presentation, and exploring the Aquarium Pyramid with interactive hands-on education stations.

December 6, 2022: Miraculous Movement: Jamming with Trains

Join us on December 6th for a focus topic of movement, engineering and sound. Featuring a 10:00am 3D Theater showing of the film Train Time, an ambassador animal presentation, and exploring the Discovery Museum and the Colonel Paddlewheel with interactive hands-on education stations.

January 3, 2023: Creepy Crawly: Interesting Insects

Join us on January 3rd for a focus topic of insect characteristics. Featuring an ambassador animal presentation, Crawling, Jumping & Flying insect presentation, and exploring the Rainforest Pyramid with interactive hands-on education stations.

February 7, 2023: Feather Friends: Penguin Pals

Join us on February 7th for a focus topic of cold-water animal adaptations. Featuring an ambassador animal presentation, Let's Make a Seal marine animal adaption presentation, and exploring the Aquarium Pyramid with interactive hands-on education stations.

March 7, 2023: Otter-ly Fantastic: Roaming with River Otters

Join us on March 7th for a focus topic of saving animals from extinction. Featuring an ambassador animal presentation, Neighborhood Watch plant & animal survival presentation, and exploring the Rainforest Pyramid with interactive hands-on education stations.

April 4, 2023: Ocean Adventures: Swimming with Sharks

Join us on April 4th for a focus topic of ocean species of cartilaginous fishes. Featuring a 10:00am 3D Theater showing of the film Sharks, Oceanview keeper presentation, Expedition Shark migration presentation, and exploring the new Shark Exhibit in the Discovery Museum with interactive hands-on education stations.

May 9, 2023: Day of the Dinos: Blast to the Past

Join us on May 9th for a focus topic of dinosaurs and sustainability. Featuring a 10:00am 3D Theater showing, an ambassador animal presentation, sustainability presentation, and exploring the DINOS ALIVE Exhibit with interactive hands-on education stations.

