

Hide-and- Seek

TREASURE HUNT

Use the clue and hint to find where I'm hiding. When you find me, write my name and circle my hiding spot. Look carefully. I move around and may not be hiding where you think.

Clue 1. I'm flat as a pancake and carry a stinger. Why do I hide? I don't want to get eaten. [Hint: I hide in the Caribbean gallery.]

Who am I? _____ Where did you find me?
on the bottom    in a cave    in plain sight    in the sand    on a reef    among seaweed

Clue 2. I hide behind a mask. A black band across my eyes hides my face so predators can't see where I'm looking or which way I'll swim to get away. [Hint: I hide in the Gulf of Mexico and South Pacific galleries.]

Who am I? _____ Where did you find me?
on the bottom    in a cave    in plain sight    in the sand    on a reef    among seaweed

Clue 3. You'll see my yellow head before anything else because my white tail is usually hidden. When there's a threat, I'll disappear completely. [Hint: I hide in the Caribbean gallery.]

Who am I? _____ Where did you find me?
on the bottom    in a cave    in plain sight    in the sand    on a reef    among seaweed

Clue 4. All you usually see of me is my face with round eyes, pointed snout and sharp teeth. When I come out to search for food, I look more like a snake than a fish. [Hint: I hide in the Caribbean, Gulf of Mexico, and South Pacific galleries.]

Who am I? _____ Where did you find me?
on the bottom    in a cave    in plain sight    in the sand    on a reef    among seaweed

Clue 5. I look like a rock shaped like a brain. My looks may fool you into thinking I'm dead, but I'm alive and hiding. I look lively when my polyps come out to feed on plankton, mostly at night.

[Hint: I hide in the South Pacific gallery.]

Who am I? _____ Where did you find me?
on the bottom    in a cave    in plain sight    in the sand    on a reef    among seaweed

Clue 6. No matter where I am, I can change color, shape and texture to hide. I blend in so well with my surroundings that you might not see me until I move.

[Hint: I hide in the North Pacific gallery.]

Who am I? _____ Where did you find me?
on the bottom    in a cave    in plain sight    in the sand    on a reef    among seaweed

Clue 7. I look just like a rock until a fish comes by. Then I suddenly appear and gulp in a big meal.

[Hint: I hide in the North Pacific and South Pacific galleries.]

Who am I? _____ Where did you find me?
on the bottom    in a cave    in plain sight    in the sand    on a reef    among seaweed

Which Aquarium animal was best at playing hide-and-seek?

Share what you found with family or friends.

Hide-and- Seek Answer Key

Vassil

TREASURE HUNT

Use the clue and hint to find where I'm hiding. When you find me, write my name and circle my hiding spot. Look carefully. I move around and may not be hiding where you think.

Clue 1. I'm flat as a pancake and carry a stinger. Why do I hide? I don't want to get eaten. [Hint: I hide in the Caribbean gallery.]

Who am I? stingray Where did you find me?
 on the bottom    in a cave    in plain sight     in the sand    on a reef    among seaweed

Clue 2. I hide behind a mask. A black band across my eyes hides my face so predators can't see where I'm looking or which way I'll swim to get away. [Hint: I hide in the Gulf of Mexico and South Pacific galleries.]

Who am I? butterflyfish Where did you find me?
on the bottom    in a cave     in plain sight    in the sand    on a reef    among seaweed

Clue 3. You'll see my yellow head before anything else because my white tail is usually hidden. When there's a threat, I'll disappear completely. [Hint: I hide in the Caribbean gallery.]

Who am I? yellowhead jawfish Where did you find me?
on the bottom    in a cave    in plain sight     in the sand    on a reef    among seaweed

Clue 4. All you usually see of me is my face with round eyes, pointed snout and sharp teeth. When I come out to search for food, I look more like a snake than a fish. [Hint: I hide in the Caribbean, Gulf of Mexico, and South Pacific galleries.]

Who am I? moray eel Where did you find me?
on the bottom     in a cave    in plain sight    in the sand     on a reef    among seaweed

Clue 5. I look like a rock shaped like a brain. My looks may fool you into thinking I'm dead, but I'm alive and hiding. I look lively when my polyps come out to feed on plankton, mostly at night.

[Hint: I hide in the South Pacific gallery.]

Who am I? brain coral Where did you find me?
 on the bottom  in a cave  in plain sight  in the sand  on a reef  among seaweed

Clue 6. No matter where I am, I can change color, shape and texture to hide. I blend in so well with my surroundings that you might not see me until I move.

[Hint: I hide in the North Pacific gallery.]

Who am I? octopus Where did you find me?
 on the bottom  in a cave  in plain sight  in the sand  on a reef  among seaweed

Clue 7. I look just like a rock until a fish comes by. Then I suddenly appear and gulp in a big meal.

[Hint: I hide in the North Pacific and South Pacific galleries.]

Who am I? scorpionfish Where did you find me?
 on the bottom  in a cave  in plain sight  in the sand  on a reef  among seaweed

Which Aquarium animal was best at playing hide-and-peek?

Share what you found with family or friends.

